Chief James Collins, of the police department, received a telegram at noon today from a sister of the House of the Good Shepherd at Louisville that Jennie and Harba Stevenson are en route to Paducah and to meet them at the 6:10 train this evening. The girls were sent to the home four years ago by Chief Collins as their mother was poor and unable to support them. They were small at that time and the chief expects to find them grown up when they return. Their mother resides in the country with a family near Paducah and they will be restored to her.

Mrs. Mollie Hurt. Mrs. Mollie Hurt died last night at her home about six miles out on the Benton road, of heart trouble. Mrs. Hurt had been sick for several months and her condition was considered very serious during the last few days. She was a woman of very pleasing personality and her friends will regret to learn of her death. Besides her husband, Mr. R. M. Hurt, she leaves two little children. The burial will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Dexter Methodist church.

The chase has been a furious one and the officers are determined to run the thieves down.

Hig Strikebreakers on Hand. Chicago, Aug. 5.—P. L. Herghoff former partner of "Boss" Jim Farley the famous strike breaker, arrived here this morning from New York. He would not say whether he was engaged by the railway company, but he is able to furnish 10,000 men if necessary.

In anticipation of strike troubles Acting Chief of Police Shattler ordered 500 new stars and asked the police board for the first thousand eligible names on the waiting list.

The Swedish Strike. Stockholm, Aug. 5.—The dire effects of the strike are now felt. The sailors' union struck today. Already shipping is paralyzed and tonight when every member will be out, a complete tie up in the Swedish waters will result. As the result of the threatened shortage because of the strike, food prices are soaring, and many are subsisting on half rations. Speculators bought all the available food, reaping huge profits. Milk and ice are being distributed by the government authorities.

Mr. James Langstaff Leads Today in the Sun's Great Voting Contest ---Miss Mattie Evans Stands Second

Million Mark Crossed Today by Two Candidates---Miss Lexey Armstrong of Lovelaceville, Third.

The million mark has been crossed today, and Mr. James Langstaff leads with a score of 1,029,625. Miss Mattie Evans, of Harlow, stands second with a score of 1,021,908, and Miss Lexey Armstrong, of Lovelaceville, stands third with a score of 801,372.

The interest in this Great Voting Contest is waxing warm, and there will probably be several other candidates who will cross the million mark tomorrow.

Candidates are again urged to turn in their subscriptions daily, and not delay until Saturday, which is the last day of the contest.

The scores of the real live candidates are changing very materially each day, and those who would win one of the best prizes are doing some hard and earnest work.

Just two more days and the story will be told. The final struggle is now on, and if you would win in the fight, MAKE EVERY MOMENT COUNT.

Picnic at Fort Massac. A party of young people went to Metropolis yesterday on the George Cowling. On the way down they stopped at Fort Massac and the girls laid out a sumptuous feast. On motion of one of the party they all strolled over to the well, that was about 500 yards distant, to quench their thirst. On looking back to where the lunch had been left they spied four boys making off with it. The men started in pursuit and after running several hundred yards the fugitives dropped one of the boxes. Those in the party were: Misses Blase Hodge, Alma Kopf, Brooks Smith, Corinne Winstead; Messrs. Harry Singleton, Will Rinkoff, Hall Williams, of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Blumhake.

SCHOOL TEACHERS WILL MEET HERE MONDAY MORNING

Plans are maturing for the Metropolis County School Teachers' Institute, which convenes in the circuit court room at the court house next Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The annual meeting will continue throughout the week, probably coming to a close on Friday afternoon. The programs for the five days' session have not yet been completed, but will be ready in a few days. The sessions will be in charge of Prof. T. J. Coates, superintendent of the public school at Richmond. He had charge of the institute last year and was a very able speaker. The program will be full of interesting addresses to be heard by the teachers and it is expected to have one of the largest institutes for some time.

There will be morning and afternoon sessions and singing will also be indulged in. Blackboard talks and lectures upon different lines of school work in the county schools will be pleasant features of the meeting. The teachers in attendance will have an opportunity of asking or answering vital questions concerning school work.

On Thursday, August 12, the county school trustees will attend the institute, the day being observed as "trustees' day." The trustees will be asked questions and may have opportunity of asking questions.

Mr. Wolfe was born in Pennsylvania and came to Paducah a good many years ago, engaging in the Sheet Metal works with his son, Mr. E. C. Wolfe.

He was a high Mason and well known in this section of Kentucky. Mr. E. C. Wolfe will leave this evening for Belvidere and the funeral arrangements will be made tomorrow.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 5.—Secretary of State Rose today issued a license to incorporate to the Ohio Valley Traction company. The principal office is at Brookport, Ill., and the capital stock is nominally placed at $2,000. C. Q. D. Signals Are Sent Out to Ships Bearing Merchandise From Europe by Consignees of Cargoes Desire to Rush Foreign Liquor Into the Country to Save Thousands of Dollars Additional Duty.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The tariff bill passed the senate today at 1:10.

Leather and Cotton Bagging.

Washington, Aug. 5.—If President Taft signs tariff bill this afternoon as expected, it will go into force tomorrow morning as soon as the customs offices open, exclusive of the leather schedules, which go into effect in October by special provision. The senate will vote on the bill this afternoon and certainly will pass the concurrent resolution, correcting the leather schedule presented in the house this afternoon, also embodying changes of cotton bagging and grain sacks to the free list.

The conference report on the urgent deficiency bill adopted by the house yesterday, passed the senate today without debate. Senator Flint, of California, member of the finance committee, opened the final day of the tariff debate, explaining the schedule on clothing, trying to prove it a decrease instead of an increase. Dolliver, of Iowa, denounced the entire tariff proceedings.

C. Q. D. Messages.

New York, Aug. 5.—Commercial C. Q. D. messages are being sent to many vessels at sea, telling the captains to make all possible speed in getting into port. Ship owners desire their ships to reach port before Taft signs the tariff bill, thereby saving thousands of dollars. Many vessels are loaded with wine and brandy on which the new tariff is a heavy duty. The bill will become a law this afternoon.

The Marconi and the United Wireless Telegraph company report handling many messages to captains at sea, telling them to rush into port. The Pennsylvania, of the Hamburg-American line, is bringing 3,000 tons of German wines. Importers declare if the vessel beats the tariff it will save the owners of wine $10,000 on duty. Others sent similar messages are the Teutonic, Lagrange, Vassari, from South America, Canaguri from Cienfuegos, the Florida from Havre and St. Andrew from Allegheny. Big bonuses are promised by several shippers if they beat the tariff.

POLICE FORCE IS WINNOWED OUT BY COMMISSIONERS

Six Vacancies Created By Board Last Night and Two Filled.

Two Men Put On Fire Department, Also.

WORK DONE WAS UNANIMOUS

DISMISSED. Fireman Henry Robinson. Fireman Robert Boanin (resigned).

ELECTED. Patrolmen—Aaron Hurley and William Johnson (honorary discharged for physical incapacity). Will Baker, Fred Merry and L. B. Naughton. E. H. Morris (resigned).

ELECTED. Patrolmen—Ed. C. Dalton, (carpenter); Will Walker, (moulder). Firemen—Charles Bell (former market master); Joba Leonard (I. C. switchman).

Four vacancies in police force.

Last night's meeting of the board of police and fire commissioners proved a surprise in many respects. It was known that Fireman Bonain and Patrolman Morris had resigned, and that charges were preferred against Fireman Harry Robinson; but when the board met in secret session there were other things doing.

The cases of Patrolman Hurley and Johnson were first called up. Both are physically incapacitated, and while every member of the board, as well as Mayor Smith and Chief Collins, expressed regret at the necessity for giving them discharges, Mayor Smith summed up the situation in his own words. He said if it was the money of the commissioners they might pension the officers; but since it is a trust fund for the pay of policemen, employed to protect taxpayers, the board has no right to consider anything, excepting that of giving the taxpayers what they are paying for. Honorable discharges were accorded the retiring patrolmen, who have been ill a long while.

Vote Unanimous.

The cases of Baker, Langston and Morris were taken up, and with the exception of one case, the vote was unanimous.

There was a division when it came to filling the places.

Will Walker is known as a Democrat.

Fireman Bonain had resigned; Patrolman Morris left his beat and disappeared one night, sending a note of resignation to the chief; Harry Robinson's trouble came from an accident while on duty, in which he got into police court.

The board will meet again Monday night to fill the vacancies on the police force; but whether they will be let off Monday night, is not known.

Chief James J. Wood, of the fire department, was granted a week's leave of absence and will attend the annual convention of the National Fire Chief's association which meets in Detroit.

All of the old men let off last night were off duty today. Chief Collins will put on the new men at once.

Present last night: Commissioners Frank Rieke, Mann W. Clark, Dr. Frank Boyd and R. R. Sutherland.

Woman Uses Whip.

Ashville, N. C., Aug. 5.—Sending him a message to meet her there, Mrs. E. C. Clyde Knight, a prominent society woman of Rome, Ga., went yesterday evening to Woodland park to await the coming of J. W. Lawrence, a well known man of Sparta, S. C., who with his wife is staying at the same hotel with Mrs. Knight, confident that despite the driving rain he would come. Lawrence came, but instead of a cordial greeting he got a severe castigation with a buggy whip piled by Mrs. Knight, who claims he had insulted her. His face was cut and bleeding as he ran for the hotel. Mrs. Knight followed leisurely, whip in hand, and there forced the man to make an apology in the presence of his wife. He then left town. Mrs. Knight spent her girlhood days on a farm and learned to handle a whip.

Grand Concert Tonight

Wallace Park Casino

In the Children's Chorus which will be held at the Casino tonight, the Paducah public will have the privilege of hearing the same class of music that the largest cities in the east enjoy. At a recent musical festival in Patterson, N. J., Mr. Gilbert assisted in work of this kind, and the result was so gratifying that he decided to attempt something of the kind in Paducah, and the interest and intelligence with which the children sing the most difficult choruses has more than gratified his efforts. Rehearsals have been progressing for the past three weeks, and the enthusiasm and growing action of the children in this work is the best argument for the organization of a permanent singing society among the young people. This will also be Mr. Gilbert's first appearance since his return from New York, where his genius and ability as a pianist has been appreciated in the very highest musical circles, and it will be with renewed and double interest that his friends will hear him tonight. Mr. Gilbert will also be assisted by Mr. Wm. Reddick and Mr. Richard Loeb, who have been heard with pleasure by Paducah audiences before.

Program:

March, "Chief Executive".....Jocques Orchestra.
"I Know a Itak".....Parker Girls' Chorus.
Il Tremo.....Gottscholl.

COLORED MASONS

HOLDING KENTUCKY GRAND LODGE MEETING.

Welcomed By Councilman Davis and Response Made By Grand Master Edwards, of Georgetown.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 5.—The address of Councilman Lucian H. Davis welcoming the delegates to the city and of Grand Master Edward B. Davis, of Georgetown, responding to this address, were the principal features of the public meeting held at the Virginia Street Baptist church by the grand lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, colored.

An audience of nearly 1,000 representative colored people had assembled to witness the exercises, which consisted in the main of welcome addresses and responses. The grand lodge convened at 12 noon yesterday and considerable preliminary business was transacted. Grand Master Edward B. Davis made his annual report, and the report of the relief work during the past year was presented by the grand secretary, W. Pratt Annis, of Louisville.

In submitting his annual report, the grand master pleaded for a higher standard of admission, insisting upon moral worth and some degree of education before candidates could be admitted to the order. He recommended that the resolution passed at the last grand lodge providing for a 50 per cent per capita tax and for the payment of expenses of grand lodge delegates by each subordinate lodge be enacted into law.

W. Pratt Annis, the grand secretary, reported a balance of $2,100 in the relief treasury, after having paid all death claims amounting to more than $700.

At last night's session addresses of welcome were delivered by L. H. Davis, councilman from the Third ward; C. W. Merriweather and Lottie Dade, to which responses were delivered by Grand Master Edward B. Davis, W. H. Humphreys, of Mayfield, and Maggie L. Freeman, of Paris.

The address of Councilman Davis was of an encouraging tone and breathed much of the friendly spirit that exists in Hopkinsville between the races. "We know no creed; we draw no lines," Mr. Davis declared, "but believe in education and the advancement of all people regardless of color." Continuing, Mr. Davis said:

"After all, we are what we are, as individuals. It does not matter what your father was or what your brother is. It is your own individual worth that counts. I am proud of the fact that the time has come when we all realize what is demanded of us; what we owe not to ourselves, but to our fellow man. I believe in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, and when it comes to right and justice, we are all as one."

In response to this address Grand Master Edward B. Davis thanked the speaker for his cordial words of welcome and paid a high tribute to well known white and colored citizens of Hopkinsville. He pleaded for the opportunity for the negro race to advance unhampered by prejudice and petty restrictions and asked that everywhere negroes be given such encouragement.

"We concern ourselves with the eternal negro question," he said. "We yearn not for social equality, but only want to work out our own salvation unhampered by prejudice and other restrictions. We recognize that the white race is dominant in Kentucky and while imitating we ask that the examples you set before us be one of purity, uprightness and truth. One man can only keep another down by staying down with him. Unless envy and prejudice be destroyed, the whole body politic will become inoculated and the government crumble and fall. Mighty nations have tottered and fallen because they were torn by internal strife."

"No government founded on ignorance and might rather than justice and right shall stand. We must model our lives after the Golden Rule. 'As ye would that men would do unto you, do ye likewise unto them.' We hope our presence here will help cement those pleasant relations spoken of. We teach and train our boys to cultivate these friendly relations everywhere, and to live honest, upright, faithful and industrious lives, working justly toward all men."—Hopkinsville New Era.

REPORT ON HAZING.

West Point Superintendent Prepares His Statement.

Washington, Aug. 5.—By the end of the week Col. Hugh L. Scott, superintendent of the West Point military academy, who was in Washington today, expects to have in the hands of the war department a report on the hazing practices at the academy, of which there recently appeared yesterday afternoon and was in response to a strongly worded invitation to the president that was sent by former Lieut. Jas. N. Sutton, only a few hours earlier in the day whose death at the naval academy is now being investigated by a court of inquiry, a victim.

Col. Scott said today he had not yet determined what recommendations to make, nor would he say whether any of the cadets at West Point are to be sent home as a result of the hazing which has been investigated to await the action of the authorities.

BIGGEST OF BUYERS

OF HORSES AND MULES IS YOUR UNCLE SAM.

Last Year He Purchased Ten Thousand Head—Trying to Bring Up the Standard.

Considered as an individual, Uncle Sam is probably the largest buyer of horses and mules in the United States last year the United States purchased approximately 10,000 head. These horses were distributed about the Philippine Islands, Alaska, Panama canal, Cuba, Porto Rico and to the navy, dry docks and army stations of the United States scattered through every part of the United States, says the Stallion and Jack News.

One of the chief purchases recently of the government is the buying of colts. Government men have made tours through Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee and Kentucky recently buying up colts. These young fellows are shipped to the remount depot at Fort Reno, Ok., where they are trained and developed into first-class army horses. Another thing that the government looks at is the neglect with which the ordinary farmer or raises his horses.

"The average farmer who raises horses," said a government official, "roughs them and when they grow up they have not the bone and substance they might otherwise possess were grain fed them." Hence you see Uncle Sam buys the young animal and puts the feed to it for all it is worth. It is said that a large percent of our cavalry horses are very inferior and, therefore, Uncle Sam no doubt is trying to bring up the standard. He is very strict when he makes contracts with parties to furnish horses and mules for his service. If a party agrees to furnish so many horses and fails to come up with his side of the contract, Uncle Sam steps over and buys from the other fellow until the contract is satisfied and makes the contracting party pay the difference in price if there happens to be any.

Some months ago a St. Louis firm agreed to furnish one hundred mules and at the same time specified the company was not able to fill the contract and the mules were bought from another company at an advance of $5,000 on the whole for the contracting party to pay.

FEW MAY MARRIAGES.

Old Saying That "To Marry in May Is to Rue the Day."

It will be noticed that there are no marriages of importance fixed to take place during May. At most a dozen are included in the list of fashionable weddings, and inquiry at such churches as St. Mary Abbot's, St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, Christ Church, Lancaster Gate and All Saints', Ennismore Gardens, all "temples of hymen," elicits the fact that "business is very slack" during the month of May.

"To marry in May is to rue the day" runs the old rhyme, and it is clear, therefore, that we are still sentimental enough to wish to avoid running any such matrimonial risk. There may be something in this superstition about May marriages, for it is a belief that age cannot wither. It is difficult to trace its source, but it has survived through practically all ages. Ovid alludes to it, and it was evidently no new idea even in his day.

What is more, it is one which obtains all over Europe, and in face of such strong testimony that the gods are defied and fate tempted, if the "merry month" is used as a "merry month," it is certainly wiser for those who are embarking on what must always be the uncertain expedition of matrimony to either choose April for setting sail or tarry until June.—Ladies' Pictorial.

Sutton, only a few hours earlier in the day whose death at the naval academy is now being investigated by a court of inquiry, a victim.

Daily Thought.
There is no political alchemy by which you can make golden conduct out of leaden instinct.—Herbert Spencer.

Congressmen, whose puny intellects were paralyzed in the presence of the real tariff discussion, are beginning to find "jokers" in the bill and their voices at the same time.

Great snakes! The Lexington Herald says "President Taft is on thin ice."

INDISCRETION OF A BRAVE SOLDIER.
No indiscretion on the part of Adj. Gen. P. Johnston can serve to dim in the eyes of the public the important and effective work he accomplished with the state militia forces under his command during the night rider troubles, through which the militia came without a discredit mark against it. In the first regiment troubles we have been inclined to lean toward the stickler for military discipline in the absence of proof that he was over particular.
We know something of the inclination of Louisville politics to get into everything in the city.

But, while we recognize the excellence of General Johnston's work as head of the state militia, we cannot condone his unwarranted attack on Denny Goode, editor of the Focus.
Whether General Johnston did or did not merit the criticism of the Focus the Focus had the right to say what it did about him, and General Johnston by his rash attack places himself in a worse light than did the editorial, which instigated the attack.
General Johnston's act amounts to nothing less than an attempt to intimidate the free press. A man in a public position must expect some to be against him and some for him and it would always be best for a public official to take the philosophic view of the circus manager, who said: "roast the show if you feel like it; but write a column."

Indeed, we suspect it was not the editorial in the Focus that drove the doughty general into a fine frenzy; but a feeling that he was being unfairly maligned and slandered and misunderstood in Louisville on account of other newspaper articles, and the Focus editorial appeared at the psychological moment that the camel's patient back was broken.

We are sorry it happened; sorry for General Johnston, and sorry for the peace of society. But we anticipate with some gusto the next edition of the Focus.

THE PARTY AS UNDERSTOOD BY THE PARTY ORGAN.
When a man claims to be an Independent Democrat it means that he is a helper to the Republican party. There is no such thing as an Independent Democrat. There is no party in the way of the Republican party but the Democratic party and it is those who style themselves independent Democrats that keep the party defeated. Where they are weak the Republicans have found a way of using weak kneed and pie hunting Democrats to turn the scale in their favor. But how do they pay them? They got Kentucky that way? Is Willson giving them anything? Taft has dished up some occasional pie in the southern states, but he is trying to break the solid south and has invariably picked men who can be worked over into Republicans.

He may say what he will and claim to be what he may, but a Democrat cannot accept office under a Republican administration and remain above suspicion.
The foregoing is an editorial quoted in full, from a contemporary which prides itself on being a "straight" party organ, i. e., the monthpiece of the party organization.
The editorial is valuable, not necessarily for its literary style or the soundness of its ethics, but for its expression of what the organ means when it refers to the "party."

Parentally we would suggest that wherever the word Democrat occurs the reader may supply Republican, if he wishes, and thereby acquire an estimate of the principles and ethics of a party organ, of whatsoever party.

The article is introduced by the unequivocal declaration that there is no such thing as an "Independent Democrat," much as Henry Watterson would say, "no prohibitionist can be a Democrat." Before anyone presumes to disagree with that statement, let us inquire further as to what our contemporary means by a "Democrat." Perhaps, we can gather that from the context.

It would be uncharitable for us to suggest that after our contemporary has positively declared an "Independent Democrat" is no Democrat at all it is illogical when it argues that these Independents "keep the party defeated." If they are not Democrats what right has a Democratic organ to scold them? If they are Democrats, what right has it to say they are not Democrats?

But let us go further. It asks the naive question: The Republicans "got Kentucky that way. How is Willson paying them?"

Now we begin to grasp the logic of the opening declaration that "there is no such thing as an independent Democrat." The party is the organization as applied to the acquisition and distribution of offices; a Democrat is an active participating member of that organization. The mere citizen, who ask for no selfish share in the spoils of politics, but believes in free trade, free silver, the abolition of trusts, the national bank guaranty and the limitation of federal authority; but votes for Republicans for local office, if he considers the Republican candidates capable of giving better service, is not a "Democrat" within the purview of the foregoing editorial.

No Democrat, who scratches the ticket, is longer a Democrat. He is read out of the party even in the sense of a silent, non-participating partner in the good things, which the Democracy of the party organ enjoys when Democracy is triumphant. We have heard that same argument applied to Republicans by the same sort of party organs; but their number is growing delightfully less.
Time was when New York, Chicago and Cincinnati, the new centers of the country, had nothing but strict party organs. Today there is not a great newspaper in the land, which is not independent. True they have their preferences on tariff questions and national issues; as every thinking being must have. The interesting fact is that the party organ absolutely has no opinions or principles of its own; but whatever the party organization (the office getting, distributing and participating element of it) says, goes with the party organ. Its mission is not to direct policies but to defend them.

Two hundred and fifty million dollars a year are wasted on bad roads

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Following is a letter to a Paducah woman from a party of Illinoisans who made the round trip on the steamer Clyde to Waterloo, Ark., returning Monday:

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 1, 1909.
Mrs. Harry S. Johnson, Paducah, Ky.
My Dear Mrs. Johnson: In convention assembled on the steamer Clyde we, the lady passengers, hereby certify that the bearer, one Mr. Johnson, known as a single man, nephew of the lady addressed, has conducted himself in a very commendable manner for one of such a juvenile age.
We presume, too, that this is his first trip away from your kind and helpful protection and think it best that we put you "next" to some of the most noticeable idiosyncrasies incumbent upon this journey. First and most prominent of these is his distressing habit of throwing his eyes upward, in the meantime rapidly winking his eyelids, thus producing the effect commonly known as "go-goo eyes." Furthermore this habit is more easily discerned when it so happens that Miss L. V. P., or well, any of the most interesting and pretty girls pass near by. Auntie, dear, we do hope that you will consider this fault in a lenient mood since he is so young and this is his first offense.

When you administer to the soles of his podal extremities, I pray you, let your heart rule your head and gentleness prevail in this act, since those large blisters were caused merely by the slight offense of tripping the light fantastic each night, at least a score of times with each pretty damsel present.

I know that when he left your kind and motherly arms you expected him to return with rejuvenated strength and health, whose signs would be visible in the ruddy complexion, bright eyes and increased intellectual ability. But, dearest, remember that when a mere boy remains up until the chimes ring out the hour of 3 a. m. eating watermelon on the upper deck, canteloupes on the lower deck and sandwiches and mint julep in the cabin that the eyes are likely to become dull and sunk, the cheeks cadaverous, transferring the once rosy hue to that most prominent part commonly known as his proboscis.

There are some other things we could mention, such as sitting in dark corners for hours with any lady who would be so indiscreet as to trust herself to his youthful care. But because Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. McCall are in the party and ask us for the sake of the great order to which you all belong to shield him for your rakes. They, too, desire that their names be not added to the list of undersigned.

Attest: Judge W. T. Crozier, Jackson, Tenn.
Ada V. McCall, Letha McFaridge, Lillie M. English, Mate V. Purris, Margaret Houston, True McCall, Gustavo Murray, Frances Simpson, Margaret Jackson, Jeanette Simpson, Elizabeth Cates, Louise Fleher, Lydia M. Howell, Fay Vander Pluyon, Mrs.
B. L. Logan, "Lilly Vander Pluyon." (One day later).

P. S.—His conduct since the preceding writing each moment is becoming so much more execrable that even Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. McCall have seen fit to reprimand him, while among the boat's crew loud threats of throwing him overboard are being heard on every side. It is to be hoped that Paducah will be reached before his conduct becomes so notoriously bad that something serious must be done, and Auntie dear will be bereft of the wreck of what was once her fondest hope and joy.

The Nashville Banner of Tuesday has the following item about Louis Brownlow, formerly editor of the News-Democrat, who has many friends in Paducah:

"A great noise was heard this morning emanating from the vicinity of the Union station. Some people thought the Mexican earthquakes were coming this way, others that the cyclone was raging, but the inclined who knew that Louis Brownlow "Brownie," as he is affectionately called—was scheduled to arrive, were not alarmed. They knew it was his steps and movements in their secret friends, and were glad to hear the reverberations of his cheery voice, when he reached the business center of the city of Louisville, we said it took him half an hour to walk a block, so many there were who wanted to shake hands and have a word with him.

Mr. Brownlow is one of the most widely known and most popular newspaper men who ever graduated from the Nashville school, his last work as a regular newspaper employe having been as Washington correspondent of the Banner. He has just returned from a trip around the world for the Frederic J. Haskin Newspaper syndicate, and has stopped over in Nashville to spend two days enroute to his headquarters in Washington.
When he reaches that city he will have traveled entirely around the globe in seven months."

STATE PRESS.

The Defenseless Combine.
The Lexington Gazette in an editorial written in excellent spirit and temper somewhat berates the State Journal for its attack upon the Whal-len-Watterson combine. It makes a strong plea for party harmony and for the elimination of all factional or personal issues in the discussion and settlement of party policies. The State Journal heartily agrees with it and believes that while its conclusions are correct, they are in some instances founded upon erroneous premises. It says:

"The Gazette has great respect for Governor Beckham and confidence in his integrity and ability. We believe he has reason to be proud of the record he made as the state's chief executive. He has a strong personal following among Kentucky Democrats. He is, perhaps, as strong, or stronger, personally than ever before.
He is in a position to render the very greatest service to the party.

"It is natural that he should be inclined to resent the opposition he has encountered in certain quarters. The average man who stops to think a moment can sympathize with his disposition to antagonize those whom he believes have done him and the party great wrong, but the Democracy of this state ought to be big enough to hold both the editor of the Frankfort Journal and the editor of the Courier-Journal."

The Gazette is incorrect in assuming that anything said by us was inspired by any grievance or ill-will towards the editor of the Courier-Journal Mr. Whallen or anyone else.
To such a charge or intimation we can plead an unbroken record of party service and party loyalty. What we have said about them has been free from any personal bitterness for, so sweet are the peace and happiness of private life that the editor of the State Journal is inclined to thank rather than censure, those who brought about the opportunity for him to enjoy it.

What they may have done to him does not concern this discussion, but what they have done to the Democratic party is a matter of serious importance, when they now come, not as true penitents seeking restatement as party workers, but boastfully and arrogantly demanding the party leadership—not the leadership in the city of Louisville alone, but the control and domination of the party organization in the state.

We give the Gazette credit for believing too good a newspaper not to know that these men, Mr. Whallen being the emissary in the field, Mr.
Watterson being the editorial backer, have for many months been and are now actively at work to secure control of the party organization and of the next general assembly. If the Gazette has been asleep and has not seen what has been going on in that direction, we shall in due time form the information, and show the steps and movements in their secret if not open, campaign for control. As long as they confined their operations to the city of Louisville, we said nothing; it was purely a local matter with which an outsider had nothing to do. We certainly could not object to, or criticize, their support of the Democratic ticket. If the Louisville Democrats could stand their domination of local affairs, we certainly could. But when we saw their sinister hands reaching out into the state we uttered a warning and we shall continue to do so as long as we see cause for it. We told the truth and if the truth hurt we could not help it.

We repeat that Mr. Whallen is seeking to get control of the Democratic organization of Kentucky, just as he has it in Louisville. Does he deserve to have it? In such a man as the Democrats of the state want to have the power to direct and control the party's policies and principles?

Isn't it a fact that since 1896 he has been a Republican and the worst enemy the Democratic party has had in Louisville?

Did he not finally fall out with the Republican administration in that city because it enforced the laws against the open saloons on Sunday?
Is such a recruit desirable as a leader to the Democrats of Kentucky?
Is he not the proprietor of a theater so indecent, with its saloon annex running seven days in a week, that no woman, with any regard to her reputation, ever dares to enter? Was he not indicted a few years ago for attempted bribery of a state senator to get him to vote for Taylor, the Republican candidate over Wm. Goebel, the Democratic candidate, for governor? Will the Gazette attempt to rebuke us, even so kindly, when we warn the splendid Democracy of Kentucky against the leadership of such a man?

When the State Journal exposed the purposes of this new alliance even Mr. Watterson yes, even Mr.
Watterson, became so sick of it that he suddenly decided to put an ocean between himself and his new political spurs and with characteristic infidel-ty—witness the lamentation of the late Mr. McNutt—will seek in European pleasures to forget the bonds of his latest hymeneal venture in the political world.

Does any intelligent man believe that these two men are sincerely interested in the triumph of real Democratic principles? Does he believe that they are fitted to lead a great party that represents about three-fourths of the intelligence and wealth of Kentucky? Is the Courier-Journal, with an editor who changes his political principles for every wind

Just blows, who reviles a man one day and praises him the next day, a fit oracle for Kentucky Democrats?
Is the green room of the Buckingham a suitable place for the council chamber of Democracy, where Democratic leaders of Kentucky must go to learn their lessons and receive their commands? We do not think so; the editor of the Gazette does not think so. And when we did tell of these things to the Democrats of Kentucky—things they know to be true as well as we do—it is not fair to impute to us a motive of personal hostility.—J. C. W. Beckham in the Kentucky State Journal.

MODERN HAIR DRESSING.

has played havoc with the tresses of the fair sex, and druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making the old-fashioned "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rashes and irritations. This preparation, which is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

MARK TWAIN WAS NERVOUS.

Refused to Discuss Latest Phase of Ashcroft Affair.

Redding, Conn., Aug. 5.—"Don't say a word, girls. It isn't honorable for us to talk of this affair." Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) paled nervously and down the veranda of his home at Redding today, thus requested his daughters the Misses Jean and Clara, not to discuss with any reporter his difficulty with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Ashcroft, in which he blamed the Misses Clemens for all the trouble. He said the young women were jealous of his wife's ability in managing the Clemens household before she became Mrs. Ashcroft.

Miss Clara Clemens, in reference to this statement, said: "How dreadful to meet such ingratitude! It is really most pitiable."

Mr. Clemens and his daughters declined to discuss at all the reasons for the original break with the Ashcrofts, when Mr. Clemens filed an attachment against the home which he had given to Mrs. Ashcroft as a wedding present.

At the home of the Ashcrofts the same recitance and regret regarding the trouble was manifest. Mrs. Ashcroft is on the verge of nervous collapse as a result of the affair. Mr. Ashcroft spoke with respect and admiration of Mr. Clemens, but regarding his published statement he said: "I felt called upon to make that statement in defense of my wife. The charges and insinuations against her have been such that, as a man, I could not remain quiet."

There was a report in Redding today that Mr. Clemens would give out a personal statement in the near future, presenting all of the facts in the case.

HARRIMAN'S NEW HOME.
Builds Residence in Woodbury at Cost of $100,000.

Newburg, N. Y., Aug. 5.—To insure his family and himself living quietly and beyond the curious gaze of the inquisitive public E. H. Harriman, the railroad man, has erected a new home at Woodbury in Orange county, about ten miles from this city, which cost $100,000. Only one road leads to the mansion, which sits on Tower Hill an old historic site and today the town board of the town of Woodbury voted to sell this road to Mr. Harriman for a large sum.

To insure his being able to purchase the highway, which is three miles long, Mr. Harriman built another road which covers the same territory by another route, and this road he gave to the town as a part of the deal.

SUES JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.
Man Injured by a Falling Window Glass is Plaintiff.

Cleveland, Aug. 5.—Because the wind storm of April 7 smashed in the window of the Rockefeller building, the oil king's big office and bank structure here, John D. Rockefeller was made defendant in a $10,000 personal injury suit.

Carl Stewart, of Nottingham, a salesman for the Realty Trust company, is the plaintiff. He alleges that he suffered injuries April 1, when the window of the office of Lawrence, Russell and Elchenberger, in which he was sitting, crashed in while the storm raged. He alleges John D. Rockefeller was negligent because he failed to put in the window glass strong enough to withstand the force of the storm.

TO SCATTER ASHES ON LAKE.
Strange Funeral Rite for Woman Whose Husband Was Drowned.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Remarkable funeral rites will take place Sunday morning, when the ashes of Mrs. Rosa Peyton will be scattered to the four winds in midlake. Her husband, Dr. L. S. Peyton, 29 years ago was lost in Lake Michigan with 75 other victims in the wreck of the Alpena, an excursion steamer.

Hoping during the years since she last saw her husband alive that he might return to her, Mrs. Peyton at every opportunity crossed to Michigan on excursion steamers. Often she carried flowers with her and scattered them in midlake, the only known grave of her husband.

To her friends she often expressed the wish that her ashes, like the flowers, would be scattered over the waters.

Miss Letta Puryear will return this evening from a sojourn at Dawson Springs.

NEWS OF COURTS

In Circuit Court.
Suits were filed in the circuit court this morning by C. H. Lane and M. A. Mason, partners, doing business under the firm name of C. H. Lane Horse and Mule Company, against the N. The plaintiffs claim the animals were being taken to the yard and an engine of the railroad frightened some of them and rushed them through two cattle guards on the track, injuring a horse, valued at $200, so badly that he was not fit for further use and damaging other animals to the extent of $75.

COWS MEETING FRUITFUL.
Paris, Aug. 5.—Commenting upon the exchanges at Cowes between King Edward and Emperor Nicholas the French papers generally are of the opinion that the words of the British sovereign intimates that the English expect Russia to develop his constitutional institutions, and great satisfaction is expressed at the prospect of relations between Great Britain, France and Russia. In this connection the Temps says that a complete reconciliation between Great Britain and Russia, whose antagonism for the last fifty years has been the favorite weapon of Prussia and Germany against France, is of priceless value.

According to Jeff De Angella, the worst hotel anywhere was one that some years ago stood in the town of Abilene, Kan.

"I had been bunking at this alleged hotel with a fellow actor for two nights," and our experience took on all the horror of nightmare. In the middle of our last night, not sleeping well, I was dimly conscious for a long time that something was wrong. Suddenly I realized that the trouble came from a leaky gas jet.

"Wake up, Bill!" I shouted in my friend's ear, as I shook him violently. "The gas is escaping."

"Well, can you blame it?" growled he, as he rolled off the corn-shuck."—Harper's Weekly.

A Promise to Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire Insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protect. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

UNPROFITABLE LOVE OF UNCLE WAS HER UNDOING.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—As a result of a quarrel over the refusal to dismiss callers at her uncle's request, Miss Sarah Bell is dead with six bullets in her body and Herman Bell, her uncle, is in jail, charged with the shooting. Bell, although married, told the police he was in love with her for years. Late last night he went to her home and finding several young men sitting on the porch, told her to send them away. He drew his revolver, shooting her six times, the last bullet when she was prostrate on the ground.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE INJUNCTION

WILL BE HEARD BY JUDGE REED TOMORROW.

Arcadia Residents Wish to Dissolve Consolidation With Lone Oak.

BOUNDARIES OF DISTRICTS

Arguments in the injunction proceedings brought by residents of the Arcadia school district against the county schools for consolidating the schools in three divisions, will be heard by Judge William Reed tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the court house. Residents of the three divisions are expected to fill the court room owing to the widespread interest in the case.

Representing the county schools are Attorneys D. H. Hughes, S. J. Hillington and County Attorney Alton Barkeley, while Bradshaw & Bradshaw & Price are counsel for the petitioners.

The schools of Arcadia, Lone Oak and Lang districts, or sub-divisions Nos. 2, 3 and 6 were consolidated into one school by the county school board and the consolidated school established at Lone Oak. This was done as claimed by the board for the convenience of the greater part of the school children. Lone Oak being located in practically a center of the three districts. School was begun and the residents were granted an injunction and the school closed down temporarily. No school is being held and the consolidation blazes on the court's decision. The petitioners claim that Lone Oak is a round about way and that children in the Arcadia district are inconvenienced in going to school. It is said that the most densely populated district with school children is the Arcadia district.

Following are the boundaries of each district or sub-division: No. 2—beginning on the Hinkley road at the corporation limits of Paducah and extending to E. M. Allen's line; thence south with the line of Potter and Boswell to the Quarrels farm; thence to Allen Coleman's; thence to Blaudville road at Bloomfield home; thence with the road to the line between Moss and Smith; thence with Smith's line to Mt. Kenton cemetery; thence east to Joe Starr's farm at the southwest corner and thence to the corporation line at Paducah to Durand's; and thence to the beginning.

No. 3—Beginning at the northeast corner of Mt. Kenton cemetery; west to William Morris's; thence to Babble creek to Massac creek; thence up the creek to Gum Springs; thence to Schmaus' and north to Mrs. Gill's northeast corner; thence east by Beyer's south line to Wilkins' north-west corner; thence north to C. M. Moss'; thence continuing north to east line of the Rouse tract of land; thence to C. W. Ingram's and west to the beginning.

No. 6—Beginning at the northeast corner of Mt. Kenton cemetery; west to Underwood's north line to Morrison's north line; thence to Richard Anderson's place; thence to Babble bridge on Massac creek; thence down the creek to N. S. Allen's farm; thence to G. W. Lee's; thence to southeast corner of Joe Potter farm; thence to Quarrels' farm; thence to Allen Coleman's; thence to Blaudville road to J. W. Bloomfield; thence with road to Tom Moss' northeast corner and thence south to the beginning.

GOT TO

Have Sharp Brains Nowadays or Drop Back.

The man of today, no matter what his calling, needs a sharp brain, and to get this he needs food that not only gives muscle and strength but brain and nerve power as well.

A carpenter and builder of Marquette, who is energetic and wants to advance in his business read an article about food in a religious paper and in speaking of his experience he said:

"Up to three years ago I had not been able to study or use my thinking power to any extent. There was something lacking and I know now that it was due to the fact that my food was not rebuilding my brain."

"About this time I began the use of Grape-Nuts food, and the result has been that now I can think and plan with some success. It has not only rebuilt my brain until it is stronger and surer and more active, but my muscles are also harder and more firm, where they used to be loose and soft and my stomach is now in perfect condition."

"I can endure more than twice the amount of fatigue and my rest at night always completely restores me. In other words, I am enjoying life and I attribute it to the fact that I have found a perfect food."

The Concrete left yesterday for the Tennessee with the barge "Dixie" in tow. She will bring out a tow of mussel shells for Joppa.

THE REAL CAUSE.

The Ancient Scalp-Fever Theory Exploded.

At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticle in scales.

Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, noted authority on skin diseases, explodes this theory and says that dandruff is a germ disease.

This germ is really responsible for the dandruff and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way, of course, and the only way, is to kill the germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this, and permits the hair to grow luxuriantly, just as nature intended it should.

STATE RESTS IN THAW CASE

UP TO HARRY'S LAWYERS TO SHATTER TESTIMONY.

J. H. Gleason on Stand Tells of Discharge of Advisers by Thaw—Try to Prove Attempt.

WAS MADE ON THAW'S LIFE

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 5.—The state rested in the Thaw case and it now devolves upon Thaw and his attorney to offset the testimony of the state witnesses, who all swore that Thaw is still insane and would be a menace if released. John H. Gleason, Thaw's original legal adviser, took the stand this afternoon and cleared up some of Thaw's apparent vagaries upon which District Attorney Jerome dwelt so persistently.

Gleason said that the dropping of Deland and other attorneys and the engagement of Bedums as Thaw's chief counsel had been done at his (Gleason's) orders and not due to a whim of Thaw.

Through Gleason Thaw's lawyer hopes to show that Thaw's attitude toward Stanford White was not due to delusions, as the state contends but prompted by what Thaw knew of White's practices. Morschauer tried to prove the charge against White today by reading parts of Evelyn Thaw's testimony of Thaw's trials. Thaw's letters to Gleason bearing his thought upon this may be read tomorrow.

Gleason presented a report of detectives regarding an alleged attempt on Thaw's life on Dec. 24, 1902. It was not made public, but introduced to counteract the state's contention that Thaw had delusions concerning the "Munk" Eastman gang, which he believed had been engaged by his enemies to beat and perhaps kill him. If he can show that Stanford White and his friends did maintain establishments where young girls were ruined and an attempt was really

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, yellow complexion, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores Prediction of Earthquakes.

Although seismologists have not yet succeeded in finding out any means of predicting the occurrence of an earthquake definitely, they are very hopeful of finally arriving at this desired goal, and already they can discern danger in the pulsations which are always gently vibrating the surface of the earth. A sudden cessation of these heart-beats is a danger signal, extreme stillness invariably preceding an earthquake, whereas constant tremors are a good sign.
A great earthquake is almost always followed by weaker ones, and when it is violent and destructive the number of minor shocks following it may amount to hundreds or even thousands, and continue for several months or years.

The occurrence of after shocks is quite natural and necessary for settling down into stable equilibrium of the disturbed tract at the origin of disturbance, each of these shocks removing an unstable or weak point underneath. Further, as a very great shock would remove a correspondingly great underground instability, it is probable that such a shock would not, for a long time, be followed by another of a magnitude comparable to its own in the same or a neighboring district. When, however, the initial shock is not very great, it may be followed by another like it, but even in this case the possibility of the origin of the second shock would usually be quite distinct from that of the first. Wide

Sawmill Business Slow.

In 1908 31,221 sawmills manufactured less lumber in the United States than during the previous year, but it was not because there was any scarcity of timber or to the increasing use of concrete in building, but is attributable to the business depression. The sawmill industry had great prospects at the end of 1907 and the lumber in operation or prepared to operate was increased 8 per cent. last year, but slack business caused a decrease of 17 per cent. in the output as compared with 1907.

PARIS SEES THE GUILLOTINE WORK

MAN WHO MURDERED HIS MOTHER IN 1908.

Early This Morning Crowd Packed Following Official Announcement of Execution.

THE FIRST IN FIFTEEN YEARS.

Paris, Aug. 5.—The sudden official announcement that a public beheading would take place this morning in the boulevard fronting Sante prison created a sensation in Paris which has not been an execution in 15 years.

Despite this parliament refused to abolish the death penalty, and in view of the revolting crime of a man executed this morning, President Fall-lieres refused to commute the sentence to life imprisonment. The victim was one Duchesne, aged 23, a butcher. In 1908 he stabbed his mother, and this not resulting in her death, he quickly enough finished her by strangulation. The motive was robbery.

As the trembling wretch stepped out of the wagon followed by a priest who was holding a crucifix it was seen that according to the law dealing with patrioles, he was barefooted and his head was covered with transparent black veiling, while a cape of ermine material half concealed his naked chest.

Before the onlookers could express their wonderment at this strange parade which gave the impression that the victim was a woman and not a man, the flowing veiling fell from the head, the cape was taken from the shoulders and the victim was seized and thrown under the knife. In a flash all was over and the crowd dispersed.

Stockholm, Aug. 5.—Although Stockholm is badly crippled by strikes, the movement is by no means so general in provincial industrial centers of Sweden.

In most places street cars are running and no disturbances are reported.

The strikers total about 45,000, of whom 8,000 are in Malmo. The loading of ships in Gothenburg, where 10,000 men are on strike is being done by troops. The street car men and cab drivers of Stockholm quit yesterday, neither the cabs nor cars running.

The grave diggers employed at the northern cemetery struck. Those in the southern cemetery are still working, but are expected to join the strike movement later.

People generally are arming for self-protection. The gun shops have practically been denuded of revolvers and small arms. All tourists have left Stockholm.

railways with troops, fearing attempts upon bridges.

the popular druggists, have succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co., to the cure of constipation and dyspep-

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles, that R. W. Walker Co. are willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

So great is the demand for this specific that R. W. Walker Co. have been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon them at once, or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

3-CENT FARE PLAN BEATEN

Tom L. Johnson's Ordinance Voted Down By Clevelanders.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 5.—The Schmidt ordinance, providing for the grant of a franchise to Herman Schmidt, insuring 3-cent fares on a part of the city street car lines, was defeated at a referendum election held yesterday by a majority of 3,763.
The total vote was 21,022 to 17,259.
The Schmidt ordinance was fostered by Mayor Tow L. Johnson.

The campaign, which was waged for the last two months, has been particularly bitter. Mayor Johnson, municipal officeholders and others held hundreds of tent meetings and urged the granting of the franchise.
A committee of 100 business men opposed it. Thousands of people crowded the streets to hear the results. When the result was an unanimous automobile homes col-low bells were rung, whistles were blown and throngs of people paraded the streets shouting.

Mayor Johnson received the results at his office, guarded by several police men.

Now that the Schmidt franchise has been defeated, an attempt will be made to secure the passage of an ordinance for the settlement of the car lighting the line proposed by Federal Judge Taylor.

SECRETARY KNOX TACKLES PROBLEM

CENTRAL AMERICA HAS BOTH EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN.

State Department Considers Refunding Debts of the Latin Americans.

HONDURAS A SPECIFIC CASE

Washington, Aug. 5. (United Press) —Secretary of State Knox has found a new way to lay the overhanging ghost of trouble in Central America which has haunted the state department ever since there was a Central America. The method, which is now being worked out, is to all appearances a mere financial proposition, but the ultimate object is a diplomatic one.

There are readily two objects. One is to tie a string to Central America, the other to save the dignity of the United States before Great Britain decides to step in and tie a string to it. We claim an undisputed jurisdiction in this business of tying strings on the Latin-American republics in the western hemisphere.

The proposition is to have American bankers refund the public debt of Honduras. At present, the bonds of the country are selling about 95 per cent below par and the bonds would be cheap as wall paper if they were not too small to paste on conveniently. Most of the bonds are held by English investors and Great Britain has been prevented only by regard for the Monroe doctrine from jumping in and making Honduras pay.

It would be a good thing for American bankers if the American government, through the state department, stands back of them and sees that Honduras keeps up her payments. That happens to be what Secretary Knox is looking for—a good and valid excuse for jumping into Honduras and making it walk the straight and narrow path of free and enlightened government. By getting at Honduras he can get at the other republics and make their disreputable presidents toe the line also.
Honduras happens to be the back yard of Central America, in which Cabrera, of Guatemala, and Zelaya, of Nicaragua, are always having their ructions. That is one reason why the republics at their last conference signed a solemn convention to preserve the neutrality of Honduras.

This treaty cost a lot of money for printing and headquarters, but it has not proven of any appreciable value except as a souvenir. With a hold on Honduras, a duty to preserve the interest of the Americans who put up their money for the refunding scheme, it is safe to say that if Zelaya or Cabrera or anyone else in Central America so much as makes faces over the back fence of Honduras, Secretary Knox will be down upon him with a whole fleet of warships.

Nicaragua has been acting up with impunity ever since Knox became secretary of state, and heaven knows how long before that. Secretary Knox tried to use the moral suasion method by boosting the international bureau and having international conferences.
This failed utterly. So has everything else. The only hope of improvement lies in diplomatically spanking the belligerent presidents until they think twice before doing as they please.

This is evidently what Secretary Knox proposes to do. And if he encourage the whole civilized world is likely to be pleased, as there is scarcely a country of consequence but what has claims of one kind or another against the Central American governments.

WHERE INCOME TAX WILL HURT

Heavy in a Few States, but It May Be Two Years Before Trial.

The income tax hits the older states of the northwest very much harder than it does the rest of the union. All will participate in its benefits, but a few states will bear the greater portion of the burden.
Thirteen states, even with Arizona and New Mexico admitted, can prevent the adoption of this amendment.
If those on whom it will bear most severely want to defeat it there are enough of them to do it. Connecticut's action will indicate whether there is going to be a fight against this amendment.

The legislatures of thirty-four states, including those most likely to support the income tax amendment, will not meet until fall, so unless extra sessions are called the decisive vote on ratification cannot be taken until year after next. This will give plenty of time for full consideration and discussion of the question.
The amendment is sure to have nearly three-fourths of the states in favor of it, but local self-interest of the small body of states which would pay four-fifths of the tax may prove strong and aggressive enough to prevent the amendment getting the full three-fourths vote necessary for adoption.—Philadelphia Press.

DECISION OF INTEREST

Important Victory of Dr. Fizz and Cream Ale, A.M. Laevison & Co.'s Gold Top Temperance Beverages

MESSRS. A. M. LAEVISON & COMPANY, PADUCAH, KY.

Gentlemen:—

A warrant having been issued for John Sheded, charging him with a violation of prohibition laws of the state by selling an Intoxicating Beverage, known as "Dr. Fizz," sold by you, this case was called, the evidence of the commonwealth introduced. The Commonwealth failing to prove by a single witness that this Beverage was intoxicating, I, as attorney for Sheded, asked for preemptory instructions to the jury which the court refused to grant, I then introduced from Fifteen to Twenty-five witnesses who testified that they had drank this drink and that it was not Intoxicating. Among these witnesses were some of the best citizens of Bandana. The jury, after having heard the argument, retired to their room, and after a short delay, returned a verdict of "Not Guilty". Quite a crowd had assembled to hear this trial, and on the reading of the verdict "Not Guilty" cheered vociferously in spite of the repeated calls for order by the court.

I write this on the request of John Sheded, who wishes you to know the results of said trial.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

E. H. SMITH, Attorney.

DEFICIENCY BILL

Carries An Aggregate Appropriation of $1,100,000.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Carrying an aggregate appropriation of $1,100,000 or $650,000 more than as originally reported, the conference report on the urgent deficiency appropriation bill was adopted by the house. The provisions respecting the establishment of the customs court and providing for the purchase of automobiles for the president and vice-president were bitterly opposed, but all attempts to return the report for amendment were defeated. A motion by Clarke, of Missouri, to strike out the provision for automobiles was defeated 169 to 122. As passed the bill makes no provision for the salaries of the judges and officers of the customs court.

A Prominent Hopkinsville Grocer Is Stricken Suddenly at His Store.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 5.—Julian G. Hord, a prominent grocer and popular citizen, died unexpectedly from apoplexy. He went to his store as usual, but soon after reaching it he was stricken and was carried home unconscious, where he died in an hour. He was 58 years of age and a native of this county. For several years he had been treasurer of the pauper fund in this county. He was a member of the Universalist church, and at one time was president of the state association of that denomination. His wife and four children survive him.

SECRET WIRE LOCATED.

Pinkertons Detect Scheme to Send Race Results to Postrooms.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 5.—One of the most cleverly executed plans to get news away from the track to the pool rooms was nipped by Pinkertons in the cellar of a house opposite the end of the back stretch pool room agents established a plant. Wires were underground and extended in devious routes over six miles. They came out of the ground in a dense woods and ran from a tree to a telegraph pole. The work must have taken over two weeks to accomplish and the cost in the thousands. This is the hardest blow struck the pool room industry.

HER INFATUATION LED TO TRAGEDY

WOMAN TRIES SUICIDE TO ESCAPE THE DISGRACE OF IT.

Friends of the Parties Hush From Tennessee to Atlanta—Survivors Tell Story of Accident.

JEALOUSY CAUSES SHOOTING

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 5.—That Mrs. William White, of Nashville, was desperately in love with Michael P. Anderson, of the Aragon hotel, and that it was this infatuation and consequent jealousy on the part of her husband that caused the latter to shoot Anderson in his room at the hotel was one of today's developments in the sensational case.

Anderson is desperately wounded and in a "dying" statement made this afternoon he admits Mrs. White was in his room with him when her husband entered and the shooting followed. Anderson states Mrs. White was infatuated with him and came to his room without solicitation. He says as they were together White entered, and saying "I have caught you," began firing.

It is stated by detectives that White also fired to kill his wife but failed. The detectives also say that when Mrs. White found the story would be published she tried to throw herself from the window of the hotel, saying she could not endure the disgrace.

White and his wife are being held to await the result of Anderson's wound. White says the shooting was accidental and is supported by his wife. Mrs. White bitterly denies that the shooting occurred in Anderson's room, and says she would die before admitting she was with Anderson.

Anderson comes of a leading family at Knoxville, Tenn., and the Whites are prominent in Nashville. Friends of both the Whites and Anderson have hurried here from Tennessee.

On a warrant charging them with assault with intent to murder, Mr. and Mrs. White were removed this afternoon to the county jail. Anderson is still in a serious condition.

A coroner's jury placed the blame upon young Peacock, who surrendered to the sheriff.

WALL STREET PENNY WILD.

Reported Possibility of Withdrawal From Cretation Cause.

New York, Aug. 5.—Wall street found diversion in the sight of a line of applicants for the new Lincoln pennies which stretched out for the length of a block from the door of the United States sub-treasury. A report that the coins might be withdrawn from circulation because of the questioned legality of the issue with the initials of the designer upon the face of the coin, drew the coin collectors to the financial district in swarms. Not more than a dollar's worth was given each applicant and a premium was demanded by the possessors of the bright new one-cent pieces in the belief that official act might result in making the coins comparatively rare.

Constitutional Prohibition Up.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 5.—The outlook is that the house will pass the constitutional prohibition bill without trouble and that the senate will fall in line with a safe majority. The income tax amendment will no doubt pass the senate and reach the governor for signature by Friday. There is not a single vote against it in either house. The debate in the senate on the proposed amendment to elect federal senators by direct vote of the people allowed renewed fealty to Jeffersonian ideals, killed two hours almost in talk and developed one lone vote, that of President Protem Thomas, against it. Governor Comer has demanded that the state insane hospital find a way to cut down expenses and there is outlook for a row, especially as he wants the governor to be one of the trustees and his office to audit all bills.
